Gwyneth Paltrow shines brightly as Jane Austen's most endearing character, the disastrously self-assured matchmaker Emma Woodhouse is this great adaptation. Starring such great actors as Toni Collette and Ewan McGregor this "Emma" is light, airy and modern – surely Austen's funniest work. Ticket £4.50, £3.50 Conc. Guests will include a couple dressed in period costume. Courtesy of Christine Sweetman Photography.
Friday 10th July
Live Event: The Ring of Fire 8.00pm @ The Watermark Tel 01752 892220. The Ring of Fire plays tribute to the career of Johnny Cash, from the early classic Sun Session Recordings such as Folsom Prison Blues, through to the modern classics from Rich Rubin's American Recordings. The ultimate Johnny Cash Tribute will take you back to the sounds of those magical 1950's shows that became the birth of Rock'N'Roll. Songs such as Folsom Prison Blues and Walk the Line through to the classics anthems like The Ring of Fire and One Piece at a Time, Train songs like Orange Blossom Special and ballads such as Sunday Morning Coming Down. Europe's leading Johnny Cash tribute band play with authentic 1950's equipment such as slap double bass, replica valve amps and retro guitars. They have played throughout Europe and have supported artists such as K T Tunstall. He may be gone now but this is as close to a live Cash show as you can get. Tickets 12, £10 Conc.

Live Event: Edwina Hayes 8.00pm @ The Watermark Tel 01752 892220. Returning to The Watermark, following her fantastic show last year, Edwina is a firm favourite of ours here at The Watermark. Edwina has a growing army of admirers – having been repeatedly chosen to tour with the likes of Nanci Griffith and Jools Holland. The long queues for CD signings of her debut Warner Bros album at such performances are testimony to her popularity and her new album "Pour me a Drink" confirms her rising star status. Her solo shows are a pleasing blend of well crafted songs – beautifully sung and played – coupled with a natural charm that audiences everywhere find appealing. Having honed her musical skills while living in Nashville, this Yorkshire-based girl has genuine charisma as well as outstanding material. Tickets £10, £9 conc.

Saturday 18th July
